REFLECTIONS

Today's Gospel passage tells us that Peter and his partners had worked hard all night long but they did not have any success in catching some fish for their livelihood. As they were getting ready to pack up their nets and leave, calling it a day, Jesus appeared on the scene. He invited Peter and his partners to try again. Although he was hesitant, Peter agreed to cast the net again saying "if you say so, I will cast out the nets." The result was beyond the imagination. A great catch of fish indeed! The question is what made the difference? The difference was nothing but the presence of the Lord. In our efforts, sometimes we meet with failures or fail to get the desired result, despite all our efforts, use of all our skills, and resources. Today's gospel informs us that it is the presence and the power of the Lord in our lives that can make all our efforts fruitful. We need to listen to the Lord and surrender all our efforts to him rather than relying on our own strength, and power to achieve the desired results.
